

How Healthwatch can help you find health advice and information

Slide: 1 Transcript:

[The screen opens with a person looking lost amongst different symbols representing health and social care services.]

Navigating the world of health and social care services can be a daunting and confusing experience, especially when accessing NHS services.

It can be overwhelming to make important health and social care decisions.

Slide: 2 Transcript:

[The screen shows a person from Healthwatch talking with the person.]

But Healthwatch is here for you.

Slide: 3 Transcript:

[A map of the United Kingdom is shown, with markers indicating that there are Healthwatch all over England.]

With over a 150 local Healthwatch in every part of England, we can help you get the advice and information you need.

Slide: 4 Transcript:

[The screen shows a building with a Healthwatch logo and a path leading the person towards it.]

We aim to help you make informed decisions about your care needs.

A decorative graphic at the bottom of the page consisting of overlapping pink and green curved lines on a dark blue background.

Slide: 5 Transcript:

[A person is shown at a Healthwatch stand giving information and advice to a member of the public.]

Whether you want to know what support you can get from your pharmacy, or understand how to make a complaint, Healthwatch can help.

Slide: 6 Transcript:

[The screen shows a winding path with symbols of different health and social care settings along it.]

Or if you need more support, Healthwatch can point you in the right direction.

When you need advice and information, you are not alone.

We are here for you.

